The IJ Regatta Report's back page (page 2) has now been moved to the internet (www.ijreport.org). This will allow the International Judges Sub Committee to review and publish reports much faster (usually between two and four working days).

Please go to the link below to submit a new report and review other regatta reports.

The online reports requests comments concerning questions brought about the rules, interpretations thought to be new (not already included in the ISAF Interpretations Book), Rule 69 (Allegations of Gross Misconduct), interesting or unpopular Rule 62 (Redress) decisions, Appendix P, race management issues and statistical information about the regatta. The needed statistical information for the report is:
